

"Life With Father" opened season

Directors: Linda Barth, Mr. Chastain, Linda Peterson.

Life With Father, the first school play presented at Maine South, was a comedy. Directed by Mr. Hal Chastain, this play told of a family living in Victorian New York. Complications arose when Mr. Day, a strict domineering father of four, discovered he had not been baptised. The plot thickened as Mrs. Day tried to persuade her husband to be baptised. Mr. Day was finally persuaded, but only after many humorous incidents and heart-warming scenes.

Sponsored by South's Thespian Society, Life With Father gave cast members valuable acting experience. The student production staff learned new techniques in makeup, lighting, scenic design, and costuming.

The outcome of the play indicated the cast's interest in getting the theatrical part of the school activities off to an enthusiastic start. Hard work and long hours of practice were responsible for the successful performances on December 5th, 6th, and 7th.

CAST

Vinnie .....	Julie Strom
Annie .....	Kitsy McMullen
Clarence .....	Roger Voegelé
John .....	Terry Maloney
Whitney .....	Vincent Pinelli
Harlan .....	Scott Roberts
Father .....	John Waldron
Margaret .....	Bonnie Buderus
Cora .....	Sue Gaskill
Mary Skinner .....	Pat Standa
Rev. Dr. Lloyd .....	Tom Paroubek
Nora .....	Judy Munsen
Dr. Humphreys .....	Bro Gregory
Dr. Sommers .....	Doug Olsen
Maggie .....	Donna Pomeraning
Delia .....	Patty Kokonas

In his first pair of long pants, Clarence confronted Mary.

Father's outward gruffness masked his inward gentleness.

In one hilarious scene Father even demanded God's mercy.